Scott: saw it, looks good although barrett noticed a minor error I believe me: yeah, we have to show Swirly that we've got reasons for doing what we're doing and that he'll need to do some convincing if he wants us to change up our procedures 12:55 PM Clark: the more dialog goes on among the geeks the better, we are more likely to get a usable product as a result of debate
me: yep indeed
Scott: who's swirly?
12:56 PM sorry but I'm semi-retarded me: Tom Swirly, one of the new recruits Clark: http://radio.swirly.com/me: ah
Clark: hes on the spreadsheet now Scott: Clark, the PM spreadsheet?
Clark: yes
12:57 PM i hope let me know if i lapsed on him Scott: I think someone stole him.
Clark: fuck
12:59 PM hes there, its out of alphabet order, i was sorting the techs to the top 1:00 PM Scott: ahhh my fault
Clark: RE: Geoff Nin: there is a problem with having more than one characteristic in a given column, it screws up the sorting 1:01 PM Scott: maybe we should have 2 geoffs then Clark: no, add an extra column
Scott: touche
Clark: i am not sure what the difference between a program developer and a systems person is

1:02 PM Scott: your guess is better than mine

Clark: may want to re-name the sys column i called it sys to save space and let the column be narrow

Scott: Clark, I found the person whom I was referring to in IRC about showing up in IRC.
It was SVlad
